If a lover of modernism doesn't fall head over heels for our Jesper White Drinks Table, we'll be seriously surprised. The graining in the white marble gives the curvy profile of this piece so much personality, placing cocktails on it during happy hour will be a smooth move. Why, we bet a finely designed space would declare checkmate with this happy-hour helper standing by! We also offer this table in a black and white marble version for those who like to mix and match, and in cast aluminum, antique brass and graphite finishes.
