When the zing of bling is the thing that will make a room sing, our Malmo Gold Accent Table hits all the right notes. The luscious red and luxuriant gold finishes make it read like it was a jewel unearthed from a Pharaoh's tomb or a Chinese Emperor's palace. The finishes on this little number have such a sheen, shadows create the ruse that there is an interplay of convex and concave shapes running along its base, though there are not. We also offer the Malmo in a cream and graphite version for a more somber feel.
